Miss Hettie Chandlin and Miss Patsy Kavanaugh went to New Castle Friday and returned Sunday. It is twenty-two miles to New Castle, and the young ladies went alone horseback.

No doubt many will be glad to know that the road leading from the mouth of Flat Creek to the Ridge has been well improved and is now considered a good buggy road.

Miss Mattie Sargent, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. C. Hieatt, will leave for her home at Hatton, Shelby county, the last of the week.

RIP VAN WINKLE.

John S. Edwards,

Of Adams, N. Y., makes the following sworn statement: Kenyon & Thomas: This is to certify what I know your wonderful medicine, Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, will do in cases of pneumonia. Last winter my mother, who is 75 years of age, was sick unto death with pneumonia. Both lungs were badly involved. The attending physician said she must die. As a last resort we commenced using your Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, applying it freely and thoroughly to the chest, keeping the lungs covered with hot flannels. She soon began to improve and in twelve hours the crisis was passed and she was out of danger and is alive and well to-day. Your great remedy saved her life.

JOHN S. EDWARDS.

Sworn and subscribed before me, WM. H. H. TAYLOR, Notary Public. For sale at Carpenter's South Side Drug Store.

DR. ACKER'S ENGLISH PILLS

Mr. Geo. Hardin and Miss Mag Bacon spent Sunday at Dr. Gayle's, near Switzer.

Mr. George D. Todd, of Louisville, has had the remains of his grandfather, John Todd, and great grandparents, Judge Harry Innes and wife, and his uncle, Tom Todd, exhumed from the old Innes burying ground on Elkhorn and removed to the Frankfort cemetery.

Mrs. John Burdin, of Elkhorn, visited friends in this section Wednesday.

Pearl of Pekin.

The fourth annual tour of this, the most beautiful and successful comic opera ever presented to the American public, will commence at the opening of the new Academy of Music, Scranton, Pa., Aug. 27th. The "Pearl of Pekin" is, this coming season, to be under an entirely new management, E. A. Stevens and Chas. E. Callahan, and one that can give the assurance that the production will be all that is represented. The cast engaged is a strong one, and will be surpassed by any former production, and no expense has been spared to make this season one of the most successful that the "Pearl of Pekin" has ever enjoyed. The company is composed of forty members, which will make it the most expensive organization that will be on the road during the season of 1891-'92. Special new scenery has been made, and also new costumes for this company, which we are assured will surpass the original production given by the renowned E. E. Rice, at the Bijou Opera House, New York. New music and new songs have been introduced.

Next Thursday night, November 19, Rice's Comic Opera Company commence an engagement at the Opera House in the "Pearl of Pekin." The bright sayings, the catchy music and the extraordinary beautiful stage dressing, place the "Pearl of Pekin" far ahead of any production of its type yet seen on the local stage. It is delightful to the eye, a banquet to the ear, and the novelty and force of its humor fill the auditorium with laughter from the rise to the fall of the curtain. This performance, when last seen here, made one of the most pronounced successes of the year, and its forthcoming engagement should pack the opera house.

Special Announcement.

We have made arrangements with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," which will enable all our subscribers to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address (enclosing a two cent stamp for mailing same) to Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., Enosburg Falls, Vt. This book is now recognized as standard authority upon all diseases of the horse, as its phenomenal sale attests, over four million copies having been sold in the past ten years, a sale never before reached by any publication in the same period of time. We feel confident that our patrons will appreciate the work, and be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity of obtaining a valuable book.

It is necessary that you mention this paper in sending for the "Treatise." This offer will remain open for only a short time.

A Good Man Suggested.

FRANKFORT, KY., Nov. 13, '91.

To the Editor of the Roundabout:

DEAR SIR: The Argus of yesterday, in an article headed "The City's Mayor," like the true lookout upon the watch tower, calls the attention of the people to the great importance at this present time of having a No. 1 man for Mayor; he warns our people of the impending crisis ahead to our beloved homes, unless we select a pilot, true and tried, a man honest, upright, temperate, and a man whose financial abilities shall be a No. one.

Voters of Frankfort, I appeal to you, in this our hour of dire need, to rise above party, to come as one man, not Democrats, not Republicans, but as citizens seeking the welfare of all we, in this valley, hold dear and recommend the man who, if the office is given to him without a scramble, I believe will serve, though I have not asked him. I have lived here boy and man, forty-three years and never before lifted a voice in any election, except once, to offer as City Treasurer under the old regime, when I had seven men out of eight pledged to vote for me, secured one vote, my opponent securing the place because he had offered the council a room to meet in and fire free of charge. D. W. Lindsey is the man we want.
